PICKING JURY IN PIENING CASE IS SPEEDED UP

Slayer of Minister Catholic Priest Soon to Face Accusers—
23 Witnesses Summoned—Frank Shepline
First Juror Accepted

WAPAKONETA. — (Sp. Jal) — Nine jurors has been selected up to 1:30 p. m. Monday in the case of the State of Ohio vs. Charles Piening, a horse trader, charged with the murder of Rev. A. J. Schwieterman, pastor of St. Augustine church at Minster, which opened here Monday.

Frank Shepline of Union-twp. was accepted for service from the list of 33 veniremen.

OTHER JURORS PICKED

Eight others, temporarily seated for the hearing of the case, are: Roger Mertz, Mrs. Mary Bricker, Homer Heslet, Mrs. Lillian Long, Edwin Abe, Mrs. Mollie Noble, Jacob Lapole and Elias Brackney.

Choosing a jury started off rather slowly, but Judge Layton gave impetus to the procedure and it is expected that a complete panel will be named before court closes today.

Taking of testimony is not expected to be started until Tuesday.

There is little interest in the opening of the murder trial. Less than half the seats in the large court room were occupied Monday.

Piening is under indictment for the slaying of the Catholic priest on February 14, after Father Schwieterman had been requested to visit the Piening home, on a sick call. A charge of shot from a gun penetrated the priest's side and he died soon afterward. Piening had previously ordered his brother, John Piening, from his home and shot him with a revolver. Coins in the man's vest pocket deflected the bullet and probably saved his life.

Judge F. C. Layton is residing in the case. Judge Layton's son, Roy Layton, attorney, is defending the accused man. Lawrence Brodbeck, St. Marys attorney, employed by members of St. Augustine church, Minster, is assisting Carl Timmermeister, prosecuting attorney, in the prosecution.

Twenty-three witnesses have been called, 13 for the state and 10 for the defense.

WITNESSES CALLED

The state's witnesses include Dr. R. A. Ruhlman, Dr. H. J. Gudrun, Dr. W. S. Stucke, Miss Priore, Rev. Anthony Paulus, Frank M. O'Leary, Peter Boehmer, Jud. C. O'Leary, Herbert Ruhlman, John Piening, Henry Kamm, George Schmeider, Joseph Bruckner.

Witnesses summoned for the defense are: Joseph Gerwils, Dr. R. A. Ruhlman, Harry Chambers, Grand J. Brown, Union Chambers, Clarence Schaffer, Harry Schaffer, George Short, Ida Naber, Herman Krampe.

The line of defense to be offered by counsel for the defense has not been disclosed, but in view of the fact that attorneys were summoned for an examination of the prisoner at the county jail, there is indication that insanity may be the plea offered.

Piening, who is unmarried, was always possessed of an ungovernable temper, citizens of Minster state. His mother is reported to have told Piening at one time that his temper would sometime get him into serious trouble.

LIVED IN SQUALOR

He lived in squalor on the outskirts of the village at Minster and was generally known as a horse trader. After the murder of the priest in his home and the arrest of Piening, health authorities disposed of the stock about his place and had the premises cleaned up.

REFUSES FOOD IN DEATH EFFORT

Grace Daggon Apparently Determined on Suicide

FATHER ARRIVES IN LIMA

Is Beneficiary of Brothers' War Risk Insurance

Grace Daggon, whose attempt to end her life at the grave of her brother, Grover Daggon, in Woodlawn cemetery Thursday, ended in failure, may be sent to a sanitarium until she has recovered her mental poise.

She is still at St. Rita's hospital, improving rapidly, attendants say. It had been hoped that the shock of the affair would restore her to normal reason, but her reluctance to take food leads physicians to believe that she is still determined to join her brother in death.

HAS MONEY APLENTY

Money is the least of the girl's troubles according to information received by American Legion officers from representatives of the Federal Vocational board.

Grover Daggon, whose death was a contributing cause to his sister's apparently unbalanced mental condition, had a war risk insurance policy, calling for a payment of more than $2,000. The sister is said to be named as the beneficiary.

Frank H. Hume, who has been carrying on home service work among returned soldiers for the Red Cross, stated Saturday that Frank Daggon, now in Toledo hospital, has compensation from the government, and that back compensation is due the sister on Grover's account. The total amounts to almost $2,000.

Grace Daggon, up to the time of her attempt to kill herself, refused to accept this money, it is stated. In addition the girl has $570 from the sale of her home.

MAY NAME GUARDIAN

Steps looking toward the appointment of an administrator for Grover Daggon's estate and a guardian for the affairs of Frank, were taken in probate court Monday.

Henry Daggon, of Napoleon, father of the girl, attempted Monday to file an application to have her tried on an insanity charge. Judge Hamilton may not grant a hearing, because the father is not a resident of Allen-co.

Interested persons believe that the girl's reason may be restored by proper treatment.

Reports from St. Rita's hospital show that the girl is still determined to end her troubles in death. She talks at times, but refuses food and forced feeding may be resorted to. The wound in her side is rapidly healing.

CHURCH CONGRESS OPENS FOUR-DAY SESSION

COLUMBUS.—Speakers at the annual congress of the Disciples of Christ, a national forum of the Christian church, for which visitors were gathering here today, will touch not only upon affairs of the church, but will discuss topics of general interest. Subjects to be discussed will include racial questions, the movies, the needs of labor, evolution and various others, all in their relation to present day Christianity.

Beginning tonight with the main address scheduled to be given by Professor Howard F. Jensen, of Butler College, Indianapolis, on "Race Friction and National Defense," sessions will continue thru Thursday.

President Miner Lee Bates, of Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio, will welcome delegates at the opening session.

ADA ARMOY TO GET $15,000 IMPROVEMENT

ADA.—An appropriation of $15,000 has been made by the state for remodeling of the armory recently purchased for Machine Gun Company H. from the Ada Armory company. Captain Claude Jamison is in charge of the company.

The building will be enlarged and interior decorations made. The state architect will decide to what extent the building will be remodeled. Size of the present armory has been a handicap to work.

REBELS ATTEMPT TO KILL COLLINS

Irish Chief's Party Attacked by Republican Army

ASSAILANTS ARE REPULSED

Free State Armored Car Captured During Battle

DUBLIN.—(United Press)—An attempt by republican rebels to assassinate Michael Collins early today and subsequent attacks on free state posts in various parts of Dublin, ushered in "Black Monday" anniversary of the 1916 Easter rebellion. The head of the provisional government was fired upon by assailants who rushed from a branch of the insurgent headquarters, but he escaped and captured one of the would-be assassins.

Beggars Bush Barracks was attacked by rebels at midnight. The assault was repulsed by free state troops.

Free state lorries, carrying soldiers on patrol, were fired upon in various parts of the city.

The provisional government's civil guard headquarters at Balls Bridge, a suburb, withstood an attack.

An official communique issued today said:

ARMORED CAR CAPTURED

"A party of armed men, some of them armed with rifles, attacked a party in which Michael Collins, head of the provisional government of the Irish free state. Collins' party returned the fire and captured one of their assailants, who carried a bomb in addition to arms."

"During the attack a free state armored car in the vicinity was disabled by rifle fire and captured by the rebels."

"Collins' automobile was halted at Vaughans Hotel, when his assailants rushed from a nearby branch of rebel headquarters, opening fire, which lasted three minutes."

Michael Collins and others returned the fire and Collins rushing from his automobile, captured and disarmed one of the rebel riflemen with his own hands.

"The automobile, in which the free state party was returning from Massachusetts, was 'riddled' with bullets."

CIVILIANS ORDERED IN

After an Easter Sunday of comparative calm, apprehensions for "Black Monday" proved justified when firing broke out in various parts of Dublin promptly at midnight.

Sounds of shooting from many quarters of the city brought free state troops in force. Armored lorries rumbled thru the streets. All civilians were ordered in doors.

Indicating the presence of considerable insurgent force, simultaneous attacks occurred at Balls Bridge and in Dublin-st. Free state patrols were fired upon from ambush and in several instances held open attacks were made by extremist bands.

With the dawn it was found that the outbreak had everywhere been quelled by loyal forces and that Collins' government held the upper hand.

General Roderick O'Connor, head of the Irish republican rebel party, was shot in the back by one of his own men. He was not seriously injured.

Limerick had a night of terror. Civilians were killed in a bomb explosion and several were injured.

CHAPEL BOMBED

RELFEST.—(Associated Press)—A bomb was thrown into the yard of St. Matthew's chapel here today. No one was injured. At Clough, county Antrim, an unidentified man who had taken refuge in the school building from pursuit by a police patrol, was shot and killed by his pursuers as he was escaping from the building.

Gunmen entered the home of an ex-soldier at Remelton Saturday night, took him outside and shot and seriously wounded him.

ACTION FOR REMOVAL OF LORAIN MAYOR HALTED

COLUMBUS.—Following a recent investigation by the state prohibition department, law enforcement conditions at Lorain have improved greatly, and the proposed removal of Mayor William F. Grall on a charge of failure to enforce the law is in status quo, the governor's office announced today.

The governor's office intimated that because of the greatly improved conditions at Lorain, no action may be taken against the present administration unless law enforcement conditions are again reported. However, no official announcement to this effect was forthcoming.

More than a year ago, dry citizens of Lorain sought the removal of Mayor Grall on charges that he was failing to enforce the state prohibition laws. Similar charges recently caused the state prohibition commission to make another investigation.

RATES SUSPENDED

WASHINGTON.—The interstate commerce commission today suspended until August 15, operation of certain schedules which proposed to increase rates on lumber from points in Mississippi to destinations on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway to East Huntington, W. Va.

LOVE MADE THEM STEAL, THEY SAY

MRS. GERTRUDE HARTUNG AND HER HUSBAND, PAUL

ADMIT 350 THEFTS SPENCERVILLE TO "BLOW LID OFF"

No Work and Family Hungry, Husband's Excuse

CHICAGO.—(Special)—A man and wife, she pushing a baby cab in which smiled a bouncing baby boy, for weeks were familiar figures to residents of Chicago's aristocratic North Side.

Then their daily promenades stopped.

Police had arrested them on a charge of having committed more than 350 burglaries, with loot totaling more than $100,000.

They charged this loot was removed beneath the robes of the perambulator, alongside the smiling infant, and that the wife was the accomplice, acting as lookout with the baby-cab as a shield while her husband pilaged homes.

The man, who said he was Paul Hartung, a painter, is held in $25,000 bail. His wife, Gertrude, has been temporarily released as she expects soon to become a mother again.

Officials in charge of the case say both have confessed. And Mrs. Hartung discussed the case freely.

"Paul couldn't get a job and we were hungry," she says. "At first he stole only food from ice boxes. I tried to dissuade him, but finally I went along and helped."

"There was nothing left but starvation. If Paul loved me enough to steal so that I and the baby might live, I cannot see how I did wrong by aiding him in what appeared to be our only chance to live."

"I did it because I loved him. Nothing else matters."

"I am not a thief at heart," says the husband. "There was no work, and I couldn't let my family suffer."

PLUNGES IN CREEK

Toledo Man Has Narrow Escape in Auto Crash

TOLEDO.—(Associated Press)—W. F. France, Toledo, narrowly escaped with his life early this morning when the automobile he was driving plunged over the Ottawa-st embankment and landed upside down in 15 feet of water in Swan creek.

Workmen in the vicinity who witnessed the accident informed police that the car was occupied by three passengers and the driver and this gave rise to the police theory that four men went to their death in the car.

France saved his life by jumping from the car as it left the street in its fatal plunge. He was cut about the face and badly bruised when he appeared at Central police station several hours later and informed police of the accident. He told police he was alone in the car.

DEATH PROBED

CINCINNATI.—A post-mortem was ordered today on the body of a white man found in Muddy creek near Soverdale last night. A bullet in the temple had caused death. The body had been in the water several days. The man was about 40 years old. At first it was thought the man had drowned, but later the bullet wound was discovered.

Illinois Town of 300 Inhabitants Wiped Out by Cyclone—Many Persons Missing and 30 Injured—Villages and Farms Devastated by Floods

Heavy Rains Continue and Disaster From High Waters Unequaled in Last Half Century—Homes Collapse as Foundations are Undermined

CHICAGO.—(United Press).—Storms and floods, unequaled in the last half century, swept Illinois and Indiana today, causing huge property loss and devastating villages and farms.

A cyclone during the night killed seven at Irvington, Ill., a village of 300, in the Illinois coal mining regions. Thirty were injured and many missing. Nearly every building in the village was demolished by the storm, according to reports brought out by trainmen.

The Illinois river reached the highest stage in 50 years, flooding nearly 200,000 acres of fertile farm lands and causing intense suffering among families driven from their homes.

Indiana rivers, running bank full, were further swollen by a cloudburst over the central part of the state today.

FAMILIES DRIVEN FROM HOMES IN MANY TOWNS ARE CAMPED IN TENTS

In every town along the Illinois river, families driven from their homes were camped in tents on high ground. Heavy rain, hail and windstorms during the night and today added to their discomfort. Danger of disease because of insanitary conditions was being fought by physicians.

At Beardstown every downtown building was flooded. With their foundations undermined by the swift running waters, homes collapsed. The water has reached such a high stage that no further efforts are being made to keep a log on its mad course.

Levees protecting valuable farmland were reported breaking all along the course of the river, forcing farmers to flee and taking a heavy toll of damage in livestock and property loss.

Illinois state officials kept in touch with the progress of the flood, sending aid and relief to communities in need.

The Red Cross and Salvation army were working, trying to alleviate the suffering.

GIRLS ARE SWEEPED AWAY

CENTRALIA, ILL.—(United Press).—Seven are dead, several missing and 30 injured following a cyclone which practically wiped out Irvington, Ill., today, according to reports reaching here over badly crippled wires.

The storm struck with a mad rush of wind and a downpour of rain shortly before 3 a. m. while the village, six miles south of here, was sleeping.

There was a crashing of timbers, screaming of those caught in the collapse of their homes and the crying of the frightened as the storm swept over.

The fury of the storm lasted but a few minutes, but rain continued falling and drenching the homeless. Shelters were quickly built to take care of the women and children.

SEARCH FOR MISSING

With the coming of dawn, survivors began searching wreckage for the missing.

The dead, according to reports here, are:

Valentine Schuster, farmer, living near the outskirts.

E. B. Eldridge.

Mrs. James Little.

Mrs. Jean Ratt.

The two daughters of Valentine Schuster, Martha, 8, and LeVina, 15, were reported swept away by the gate. The crushed body of one was reported recovered a mile from her home, while the other has not been found.

Farm houses in surrounding territory were wrecked. Reports said a farmer named Winegardner was killed.

The Hudson home, an orphanage, maintained by the Baptist church at Irvington, was unharmed, while all surrounding buildings, including the Illinois Central station, was blown to pieces.

Relief was started from Centralia and other surrounding towns, over roads which were nearly impassable. The great church, between Centralia and Irvington was destroyed and many persons in farm districts nearby injured.

TRAIN IN WASHOUT

INDIANAPOLIS.—(Associated Press).—Westbound passenger train number 43 of the Big Four railroad, was derailed near Foster, Ind., early today, reports received by the Indianapolis dispatcher's office today said. Harvey Watts of Indianapolis, fireman of the train, was injured, but not seriously, the report said.

The train, which was bound for Peoria, ran into a washout near Foster and a baggage car, engine and mail car turned partly over.

Seventy-five feet of track was reported to the dispatcher's office to have been washed out by the heavy rains of last night.

OHIO RIVER AT 44-FOOT MARK

FORTSMOUTH, Ohio.—(Associated Press).—The Ohio river here today reached the 44-foot mark and only two more feet of water was forecast on the present rise. The flood stage is 53 feet. The Scioto river continues to rise and has flooded the lowlands, but very little damage has resulted.

STORM COSTS GIRL $50

TOLEDO.—(Associated Press).—Miss Elizabeth Poth, bank employee, was blown to the ground as she alighted from a street car in the business section this morning and an envelope containing $50, Easter offering of a local church, which she was delegated to deposit, was blown from her hand and lost. The gale which swept Toledo for more than four hours early today caused little damage aside from uprooting a few trees in the residence sections.

STORM WARNING

WASHINGTON.—(United Press).—The weather bureau today issued the following bulletin:

"Southwest storm warning, signal hoisted 11 a. m. C. P. Henry to East Port. A disturbance over the Great Lakes will increase in intensity and move eastward. Strong southerly winds will increase and become a gale force tonight."

RIVERS AGAIN RISING

ST. LOUIS.—(Associated Press).—The flood that swept this section last Friday night claimed one victim, Richard Mason, aged nine years, who fell from a barge into the Ohio river Saturday evening.

The body has not yet been recovered. More rain last night caused the Ohio river to begin a new rise this morning. River roads are flooded but railroad and street car service is back to almost normal after all lines were tied up for twenty-four hours or more.

BUILDINGS WRECKED

WASHINGTON C. H., Ohio.—(Associated Press).—A violent wind storm early today wrecked many farm buildings in this vicinity, uprooted orchards and crippled telephone service. No personal injuries were reported.

WATER 15 FEET DEEP

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(United Press).—Flood waters along the Illinois river continued to rise today. Trees broke near Beardstown flooding thousands of acres of farm lands.

In some places the water was 15 feet deep on fertile soil. Heavy livestock loss was reported. Every building in down town Beardstown was under water except a dining room. Rainstorms during the night added to the suffering of the hundreds of families who had been driven from their homes and were living in tents.

SHEETS OF RAIN

INDIANAPOLIS.—(United Press).—Rain fell in sheets over central Indiana today, reaching cloudburst proportions in some sections. Swollen rivers were forced higher, speeding out over lowlands. The rain will continue, according to the weather bureau.

MISSISSIPPI RISING

ST. LOUIS.—(United Press).—The flooded Mississippi river continued to mount slowly today.

At 8 a. m. the surging waters reached a flood stage of 32.7 feet over a rise of 2 over night. Torrential rains last night and continuation of the downpour today indicated the rise would continue.

With thousands of acres of farm land already underwater, residents today prepared to move their belongings to still higher ground.

DIES SUDDENLY

EUROPEAN PEACE HOPE FADES

Success of Genoa Conference
Now Regarded as Impossible

DISARMING FIRST NECESSITY

This Step Blocked by Position of France

GENOA — (Associated Press) — After Genoa, what? What? This is the question uppermost in the minds of the delegates to the international economic conference. Experts and delegates alike are agreed that it probably will be necessary to have two more conferences at least before peace is restored in Europe and financial reconstruction becomes possible.

Granting that the Russian problem is settled in principle, and recognition is granted Russia by the Genoa conferees, which apparently is the most that can be hoped for from the present gathering, a disarmament conference probably would be the next step in an effort to end what the Russians say is virtually a state of war between Japan and Soviet Russia, Turkey and Greece might also be admitted to this conference in an effort to stop the fighting in Asia Minor.

FRANCE HOLDS BACK
France has expressed a desire to discuss disarmament with her friends, but not with her enemies; consequently there may be some difficulty in getting her to enter a general disarmament or peace conference embracing all the powers which still have armies on a war footing.

Frank A. Vandier, the American financier; Professor Gustave Cassel, Swedish economist; and other experts at Genoa recently agreed that a disarmament conference is a necessary step before a successful financial or economic conference is possible, as lessened military expenses are imperative before loans can be floated on a large scale.

AMERICAN ATTITUDE
Washington is generally regarded as the best site for an economic conference to follow the disarmament meeting, but holding the meeting there would secure the possible loss of the Russian government were in the meantime recognized by the United States.

As the chances for recognition of the Soviet by the European powers becomes brighter, the interest in America's attitude toward Russia increases, and the delegates are eagerly asking the Americans in Genoa how long the United States will hold aloof politically from the Moscow government which it is helping so generously with food.

France's fixed determination not to permit the slightest revision of the Versailles treaty would undoubtedly prove a great handicap to another economic or financial conference, which would have to deal so largely with the reparations problem, but the present conference is breaking much ice and Mr. Lloyd George, the British premier, is generally looked upon as a leader skillful enough to overcome any French opposition in this regard.

WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT OF CITY JAIL IS IMPROVED

A corps of men, hired thru the Social Service bureau, began Monday on improvements in the women's department of the city jail. The walls and ceilings will be kalsomined, and the dormitories otherwise renovated.

The place has been unfit for occupancy for many months, police say. It was necessary several weeks ago to release a woman on bond who had been arrested for violating her parole. Manager Bingham became interested in the improvements after that occurrence.

13 PATIENTS REMOVED FROM CITY HOSPITAL

Easter was a joyous occasion for thirteen patients at City hospital. Condition of that number was such that they were privileged by physicians to return to their homes. Register of the hospital showed just thirteen less on Sunday morning than were reported at the hospital Saturday.

RAINFALL HALTS CAR TRAFFIC

Service Hampered on O. E.—
Farm Work Impeded

Heavy rains of Sunday night seriously interfered with service on the Ohio Electric Railway. Cars up to noon Monday from the north were running into this city several hours late.

Due to breaking of an insulator, the high tension power was off, interfering with passage of the cars last week, effects of the water is still being felt.

Harry G. Mason, superintendent of transportation, announced at noon Monday that the trouble was straightened up and that cars would be able to maintain their regular schedule.

On other divisions, cars were only slightly off schedule. No trouble was experienced by the Western Ohio Railroad in operation of trains, officials stated.

No damage is reported by telegraph or telephone companies as a result of heavy rains. Steam roads found little or no interference in the operation of trains, due to high water, officials state.

Jacobsen's rain is holding back work on farms. Flooding and seeding is being hampered in a serious manner.

REV. G. M. BAUMGARDNER ADDRESSES ROTARY ON BUILDING OF CHARACTER

Character building is the most important part of the development of men and women today, Rev. G. M. Baumgardner, pastor of Epworth Methodist church, told club members Monday noon.

Modern American life is conducive to the building of a strong character and the competition of business develops the best that is in a man, Rev. Baumgardner said.

When wealth is lost, nothing is lost, when health is lost, something is lost, but when character is lost, everything is lost, he added.

Mrs. Ralph Austin sang three numbers as a prelude to the address by Rev. Baumgardner.

The annual election of officers will be held next week and the installation will take place the following Monday. Congressman Simeon D. Fess will address the luncheon meeting next week.

BINKLEY-DAVIS DAMAGE SUIT FOR $299 OPENED; COUNTER CLAIM FILED

Hearing of a suit for $299.99 damages filed by N. Clifford Binkley against H. Clarence Davis, 1155 Erie-av, commenced before Justice of the Peace Ernest M. Botkin, Monday afternoon.

Binkley charges his auto was ruined by the grocer's delivery truck when the two vehicles collided at Metcalf and Spring-ats, April 3. Binkley asserted he was driving east on Spring-st. and that the grocer's car, driven by the defendant's son, ran into him.

Davis has filed a counter suit in the same sum for damages inflicted on his machine.

BODY OF HARRY BERRIGAN IS TO BE BURIED HERE

Body of Harry Berrigan, 37, who died in Youngstown at 3 a. m. Monday, will be brought to Lima for interment. Mrs. William Linderman, 324 S. Jameson-av, a sister-in-law, stated.

Berrigan formerly lived here, but has been in Detroit for the past 12 years. His wife is critically ill at Youngstown. The decedent was a member of the Elks' and Knights of Columbus lodges.

Funeral will be held from St. John's Catholic church Tuesday, with burial in Gettysburg cemetery.

LAYCOCK, ARNOLD HELD IN $1,000

Admit Guilt on Rum Charges—
Accused of Assault

In addition to charges of illicit possession of liquor, Harley Arnold, 26, of 323 S. Pierce-st, and Cad Laycock, 32, of 218 S. Pierce-st, arrested at the Barr Hotel after a brawl, in which they are accused of assaulting Landlord O. O. Barr, will also face assault charges in criminal court.

An attorney for the pair appeared for them in criminal court Monday and entered pleas of guilty on liquor charges preferred by police. He also represented Rudyard Whippis, Columbus salesman, in whose room Arnold, Laycock and a woman are said to have congregated shortly before the row. The lawyer entered a non-guilty plea for Whippis on a charge of liquor possession.

They will probably be tried the week of April 24. No definite date was set by Judge Emmett Jackson.

Barr preferred assault charges against Arnold and Laycock Monday. They were the only ones who attacked him, he said. Whippis is said by police to have remained in his room until officers rounded up the fleeing duo.

Arrangements were made to have the local men arrested on assault warrants. Fifty dollars bond was to be added to the $1,000 bond if each case, on which they were released after their arrest.

FACES 2 CHARGES

Becraft Accused of Drunkenness
And Contributing

H. F. Becraft, 23, of 718 N. Jackson-st., faces prosecution for drunkenness and contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl, police say, as the result of an incident on N. Main-st. Sunday night, when he, a drunken state, he intercepted a young girl, police charge.

The girl and her mother were to appear against Becraft in criminal court Monday, but failed to do so. The police say the girl is only 11 years old.

A pedestrian, passing on the street, overheard Becraft's remark to the girl, police say, and held him until Police Sergeant Grant came up and took him in custody.

Becraft was scheduled to appear at 1:30 p. m. Monday in court to go on trial on a charge of drunkenness. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned earlier.

Chief of Police T. A. Lanker said a charge of contributing to delinquency will be placed against Becraft in juvenile court after the case in criminal court has been disposed of.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR HEAR EASTER SERMON AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, SUNDAY

One hundred and fifty Knights Templar, members of Shawnee Commandery No. 14, attended Easter services at the First Baptist church. It was the largest representation ever known at the Easter services held by the Lima Knights.

They were in full regalia, excepting swords and were accompanied by the Lima Masonic band. The Knights marched from the Masonic temple at 10:30 a. m. to the First Baptist church, where services were held.

Rev. Warren L. Steeves, pastor of the First Baptist church, delivered the sermon from the subject, "The Keyes of Death and Hell."

Following services at the church, members of the commandery and the band were seated on the steps of the High school building, where a picnic was taken. George W. Eckert is eminent commander of Shawnee Commandery.

PARKS THROGGED

Hundreds Visit Lima's Beauty
Spots On Easter

Hundreds of persons took advantage of the opening of Faurot and Lincoln parks, Sunday.

A constant stream of automobiles passed thru the park all day long and many out of town visitors were in evidence. The only thing lacking was the picnic crowd eating lunches on the green.

Many children were in the playground. The equipment has been thoroughly rebuilt and repainted and it was all ready for the youth of the city. The wading pool will be opened a little later.

Even tho the parks were opened several weeks earlier this year than last, everything was in shipshape. Flowers are in bloom and the grass is cropped close. New rustic drinking fountains are in evidence.

An unusual group in the interest given the parks by Lima citizens during the past few years has been noted and arrangements have been made to take care of all who wish to take advantage of them. Claud Zarman, superintendent of parks, said.

RAIN HALTS STARTING WORK ON SEWER SYSTEM

Rain delayed starting of work on Lima's new intercepting sewer system, Monday. It is expected that operations will begin within the next few days.

Contracts signed by the Fred R. Jones Co., who will do the work, are expected here late Monday. It is possible that a representative of the company will come to Lima to deliver the contract and supervise the preliminary work on the job. C. A. Bingham, city manager, said Monday.

PROGRAM PLANNED FOR GRATZ SCHOOL, TUESDAY

Demonstration of the manufacture and use of dress forms will be held at the Gratz school house, Richmond-tp, Tuesday evening. It will be under the direction of Mrs. Martha Radabaugh, Farm Bureau worker.

Methods of nursing and first aid will be shown by Mrs. F. C. Marshall and Mrs. E. E. Freet who attended the demonstration in Lima last Tuesday.

H. J. Ridge, farm agent; Henry Huber, pig club leader and T. G. Vickery, Smith-Hughes teacher, will visit Jackson-tp schools Tuesday in the interests of the boys and girls clubs.

SURGERY CASE

Mrs. Guy Neely, 232 N. Jameson-av, was subjected to a minor operation at St. Rita's hospital, Monday. Information from the hospital, at noon Monday was to the effect Mrs. Neely is recovering.

ASSUMES NEW DUTIES

Miss Minnie Holden, who resigned as stenographer in Manager C. A. Bingham's office and clerk at the criminal court, assumed her new duties as assistant to James I. Hoffner, manager of the Lima Auto club, Monday. She will have charge of headquarters in the Argonne hotel.

NO "BEGGING" IN FUND EFFORT

Aid For Social Service Bureau
To Be Voluntary Matter

Lima will not be subjected to a "Beggings Squadron" during the campaign for $50,000 for the work of the Social Service bureau, J. W. Beall, chairman of the fund campaign said Monday.

Letters addressed to well to do persons explaining the merits of the work and the necessity for contributions have been mailed, but no special urging will be resorted to, said Beall.

There is no reason why everyone cannot aid in the work, Beall asserts. The numerous entertainments and sales make it possible for persons to obtain needed articles and at the same time contribute to the fund.

Those who desire to give cash donations. It is planned to enable every person in Lima to do his or her bit in clearing up the bureau's deficit and establishing a balance for future work.

A number of store windows were being decorated Monday. In the vacant store room of the Hoover-Bond Co., on the public square, two kitchens were being placed. One shows conditions before the social service worker visited the home and the other showed the results of her visit.

Open house at the Elks' Home with a minstrel show and dance in the evening were the big features planned for Monday. Great interest in the K. of C. Charity Ball for Tuesday evening was also being shown. More than 4,000 tickets have been mailed out.

It is understood that a number of churches are planning to apply their morning and evening collections next Sunday to the fund. At least one church has notified the bureau that it would take that way to raise its contribution.

Leaders of the campaign are confident the necessary amount will be raised during the week. "All it requires is the aid of every person in Lima," Chairman Beall said.

MANY LIMA PEOPLE ARE ON TAMPA'S TOURIST LIST

Ohio again leads in the registration of winter visitors at the Tourist Information bureau in Tampa during the season just ending.

Of the number registered, many were from Lima. A total of 9,798 were listed and 1,624 are Buckeye citizens.

J. H. Basden, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burden, Earl R. Creston, Mrs. Alice F. Garver, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Good, Ensign Hanes, Mrs. A. M. Kolars, M. Kollar, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Myers and son, J. R. Smith, Misses Ruth and Brookie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Reel, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ross, Geo. C. Shook and J. L. and C. S. Thomas, of Lima, were among the tourists registered.

Constant rains during the past week and again Monday have hindered the work of the farmers, H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, said Monday.

Clay soils will not be workable this week and if any more rain falls, the sandy and black soils will be too wet to be trenched before the last of the week, Ridge says.

A week of warm, sunny weather is needed and would be a boon to the farmer. Unless such weather comes soon there will be a serious delay in getting the corn and oats crops planted, Ridge believes.

INJURED LIMA BRAKEMAN IS REMOVED TO DETROIT

Lee McEldey, 1130 E. High-st., brakeman on the D. T. & L. Railroad, who suffered severe scalp wounds when his head struck a pole as he leaped out of his car for orders, while his train was approaching Springfield, is now being treated in a Detroit hospital.

McEldey was removed to Lima more than a week ago from the Springfield hospital, where he was taken after the accident. To provide greater care, he was removed to the Detroit hospital.

TRAFFIC CHARGES ARE FACED BY 7 AUTOISTS

Traffic court resumed Monday with seven autoists fined on various charges, most of them being no-light cases. These drew $1 apiece: B. Hefner, 43, R. D. 2, parking without lights; J. W. Hennon, 37, of 531 N. Charles-st, parking without a tail light; J. W. Peters, 46, R. D. 7, no lights; W. R. Roush, 407 S. McDonel-st, parking without lights; Harold Miller, 23, Spencerville, Cortney, 23, of 237 1-2 S. Main-st, parking without lights; J. E. Breese, 42, of 323 S. Metcalf-st, parking without tail light.

A. M. Peters, 32, R. D. 7, was dismissed from a charge of parking at a water plug and Chalmers Brown, 40, of 325 S. Jameson-av, from an accusation of improper parking.

VOLBERT DENIES GUILT ON WATER THEFT CHARGE; RUMMELL CASE DELAYED

A plea of not guilty was entered by Casper Volbert, 51, of 1061 Hughes-av, Monday in criminal court on a charge of stealing water from the city. Volbert and L. C. Rummell, 39, of 1108 Faurot-av, were arrested on warrants sworn out by Charles Evans, superintendent of the city water department.

Volbert's trial was set for Thursday at 9 a. m.

Rummell also appeared, but disposition was not made of his case. He told the judge he had been out of work for eight months and had no income.

"We got along without a good many things, judge," Rummell said, "but we could not do without water."

He admitted he turned the water on at the street plugs in front of his home after city employees turned it off several times for alleged delinquency in meeting quarterly payments.

Rummell was to have a conference with City Manager C. A. Bingham before pleading to the charge in criminal court in hope of having the case continued until he can obtain money to make good the water rental.

BOCKEY HEIRS OPEN FIGHT ON DOWER OF HIS WIDOW

Upon the outcome of a hearing before Judge Fred C. Becker, common pleas court Monday, will depend the amount of dower to be awarded to Mary Bockey, widow of Matthias Bockey, wealthy Marion-tp. farmer.

Mrs. Bockey, in a long drawn court battle was successful in securing a portion of an 80 acre tract, deeded secretly to Bockey's children, it was shown.

The present case arises from action filed in probate court, when Mrs. Bockey secured an increase in the amount of dower to be awarded her. John E. Bockey, son of the decedent and administrator of the estate, filed action in common pleas court asking that the award be set aside.

Property valued at $100,000 is at stake. The property comprises 296 acres of land, two town houses and personal property and bank stock, said to be worth $20,000.

John Bockey, as administrator has charge of the estate. A division of the property has not been made, pending settlement of litigation.

COAL OUTPUT CUT 6 MILLION TONS

Effect of Strike Shown by U. S. Geological Survey

WORSER THAN 1919 WALKOUT

Injunction Against Union to be Decided Today

(BY JAMES T. KOLBERT)

WASHINGTON—(United Press)

The present mine strike has cut down coal production much more than did the great coal strike of 1919, official figures of the United States geological survey revealed today. The effect upon the country, however, has been much less disastrous during its first two weeks than was the 1919 walkout.

Total coal production, both bituminous and anthracite, during the first week of the present strike, amounted to only 3,793,000 tons as compared with a total of 5,550,000 tons during the first week of the 1919 strike. Just before the strike now in effect, production was approximately 10,000,000 tons a week.

COURT ACTS IN STRIKE
CHARLESTON, W. Va.—(United Press)—The right of the United Mine Workers to further organize the non-union fields of West Virginia, is at stake in a hearing before United States District Judge McClintic here today.

The decision McClintic will render will apply with equal force to all parts of the state within the jurisdiction of the court.

Maintenance of the Mingo-co tent colonies, however, will in no way be affected by today's decision.

McClintic has made it clear he stands ready to issue an injunction similar to a temporary restraining order issued Saturday, April 8, and on which the present hearing is based. On April 8, McClintic temporarily restrained all officers of the United Mine Workers of district 29, with headquarters at Beckley, from doing any act looking towards the organization of non-union miners in the Winding Gulf field. He restrained United Mine Worker officials from making speeches, holding meetings and organizing marches.

GROUND FOR ACTION
The petition for the temporary restraining order was filed before McClintic by 50 non-union operators in the Winding Gulf field, who made the following petitions:

That picketing by groups of union miners are in violation of anti-trust laws.

That mass meetings held by union miners for the purpose of organizing non-union men constitute threats and intimidation. Refusal of United Mine Worker officials to all district organizations in West Virginia to negotiate separate wage contracts independent of the central competitive field and their action in thereby cutting off the nation's coal supply are "interference with interstate commerce and illegal under federal law."

The action of union miners in inducing non-union men to break contracts is "destruction of a property right." The check-off is demanded so United Mine Workers may organize non-union fields and gain monopoly of mine labor. The United Mine Workers of America is an "illegal and unlawful organization."

STRIKE OUTBREAKS
MORGANTOWN, W. Va.—(United Press)—One man today was in the hands of authorities, following two outbreaks of striking miners in Monongahela-co.

Properties of the Brady Coal company at Beechwood was fired into by men secreted in the woods on the opposite side of the Monongahela river. A demonstration by a group of 25 miners was staged before the River Seam Coal companies at Almina.

State police in both instances responded to calls and one man was arrested at Almina, on a pistol-toting charge, according to Prosecutor R. P. Posten.

PEAVY WELL MAY DO 75 BARRELS

Big Strike Made in Virgin Territory Near City

Revival of the bonanza oil days, which made the Lima field one of the big world producers, may result from the bringing in of a 75-barrel well on the Lyle Lewis lease, about eight and a half miles northeast of Lima, according to oil men.

C. A. Peavey, of Marietta, driller and operator, has brought in a natural flowing well at a depth slightly in excess of 1300 feet.

The news of his strike turned attention of producing companies to that section of Allen-co. The well is situated in the northeast extension of the old Lima field, but is far enough away from production ground to be classed as virgin production.

Bath-p field, which lies adjacent to the new well, has been a big producer in the past year. Wells running from 20 to 50 barrels have been brought in by drillers operating in the field.

Oil men Monday, as result of the news of the Peavey strike, were engaged in tying up land not already under lease. Considerable drilling in the vicinity is expected to follow.

The Peavey well is the largest brought in around Lima in a number of years, according to M. P. Colt, of the National Supply company.

Oil flowed over the top of the casing and about 35 barrels of petroleum was tanked within a few hours. It may not be necessary to shoot the well to stimulate production, according to oil men.

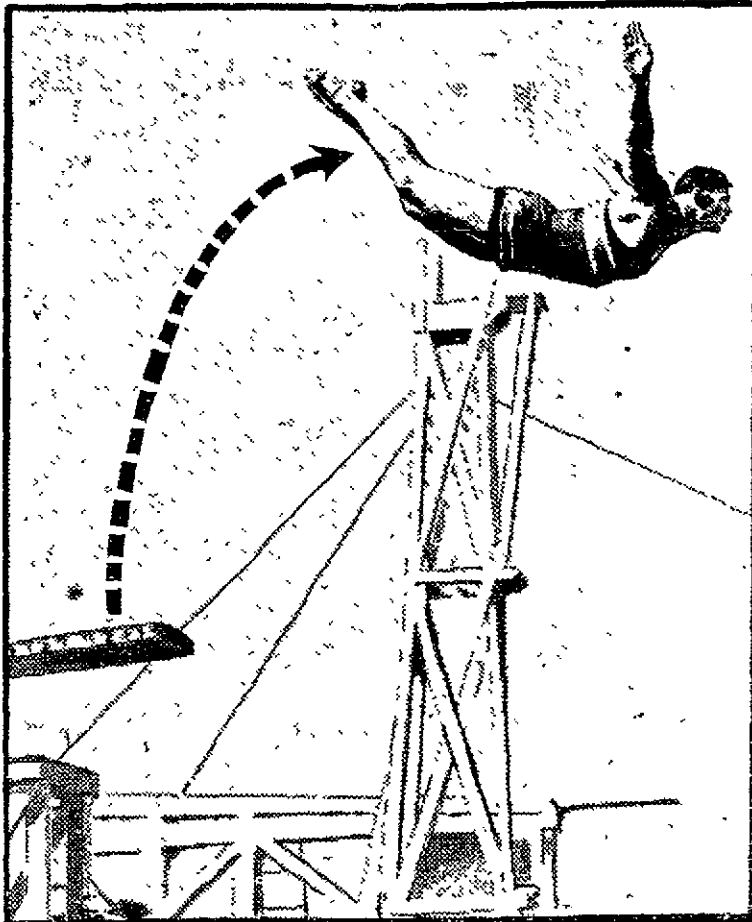

Pumping commenced Saturday, and indications are that the well will make an average of 60 to 75 barrels.

A 20 to 30 barrel well was brought in on the Spelacy lease southwest of the Peavey strike two weeks ago. Salt water which was encountered hindered production, but has been successfully controlled, according to Kline S. Spelacy, oil operator.

Auto Club Members Report for Benefit of Motorists.

Automobile traffic between Lima and other Ohio cities has been proving quite rough going, according to reports made to the Lima Auto club by members who attempted trips by motor.

"We would advise members and others," said James I. Heffner, manager, "to travel by rail for a while. Reports shows roads are badly cut up and recent rains have not wrought an improvement."

Information received by the club gives the following routes as the best between Lima and points named.

To Lafayette, Ada, Dunkirk and Upper Sandusky, leave Lima Auto club, Argonne hotel, go east to Main-st, turn north to Pearl-st; turn to right and go east to Jefferson-st, turn to left and follow road. Straight past the county infirmary to Lafayette, Ada, Dunkirk. To Blanchard, turn to right in Ada, go south past cemetery to first road and go to end of road. Turn to left Blanchard to the Findlay and Kenton-rd. Turn to right and go straight into Kenton.

CAR WAR MAY BE ENDED TODAY

Detroit is Voting on Municipal Ownership

CHANGE TO COST $19,850,000

Plan's Adoption Means World's Largest City Railway

DETROIT, Mich. — (Associated Press) — Detroit's special municipal election being held today will decide whether the street car war, waged almost continuously in one form or another for nearly 30 years, is to be brought to a close.

The voters today were deciding whether the city should purchase at a cost of $19,850,000 all the line of the Detroit United Railway within the city for incorporation in the municipal railway system. The citizens also were called upon to vote $4,000,000 worth of street railway bonds as the first payment to the Detroit United. The remainder of the purchase price would be paid at the rate of $1,000,000 a year, under the agreement signed some time ago by company and city officials.

The fight between the city and street railway company has come to be an institution in Detroit. It has colored virtually every municipal election for nearly a generation.

OPERATE JOINTLY
If the voters adopt the sales plan at the polls today Detroit will have the largest municipal railway in the world. The system would comprise 476 miles of trackage.

About 100 miles of city owned track has been laid and the municipal system has its own cars and other equipment. At present city and company owned cars are operating jointly on two important lines upon which the company franchise expired some time ago.

Saginaw, Mich., is voting for the ninth time today on a proposition to spend $2,500,000 for a new water works system.

MUSICAL LIMA

ANNOUNCEMENT of special musical events in Lima high schools, in preparation for contests finally in Findlay and in Denison university, indicates that there is a tendency toward the maintenance of this city's long-time excellent reputation for the cultivation of the best there is in music.

It is an encouraging sign of the times that the younger element is evincing such a lively interest in the art that makes for culture, the development of mind and heart in the proper direction. Lima in the past has always been able to hold her own in this respect, and probably will continue to do so in the future.

In former days, when elistedfods, the last word in musical events, were the "rage" in this section of the country, Lima was always represented in a manner that made her a dangerous rival. Time after time, the highest honors were won by Lima musicians, as individuals, and also in duets, trios and choruses.

Pride in their ability to win laurels for their home city actuated the vocalists to renewed effort and the Welsh national musical institution for a number of years was practically transplanted in America. While we hear little in these days about the elistedfod, its successor, the tendency to American mass singing, is strong in development. Lovers of music give of their time unselfishly in implanting in others the desire for the best there is in song.

As a result of the preparation for contests to be held elsewhere, it is confidently expected that Lima youth will uphold the record of this city in leading to such events winning organizations.

STOPPING AUTO THEFTS

IN the olden days, when the horse was the standard of requirement in serving as a beast of burden and one of the biggest essentials to the well-being of the pioneers of a new country, for the protection of the interests of their owner, it was an unwritten law that a horse thief should "stretch hemp."

In other words, he was promptly lynched, without process of law or advantage of religious attendance. Even that did not altogether break up the habit of horse stealing, history records.

Theft of automobiles has become a practice so prevalent and so exasperating to the owners that there is growing a popular demand for severe punishment for the guilty. In these days of enlightenment and progress, it is not to be supposed that lynching be made the penalty for auto stealing, nor that a law be passed prescribing the death penalty for such an offense. However, one need not be surprised over the passage of the most drastic legislation to meet a condition that has been developing rapidly.

CHASING GLOOM

THIS is the week to chase gloom in Lima. It is the time for aiding the unfortunate by contributing to the campaign for the Social Service bureau. There are a dozen ways in which this is possible. Civic and fraternal organizations are co-operating. Patronage of the various entertainments they are giving means help for the needy. Every cent goes to charity. Do your share!

COMPETITION RETURNING

IN the day prior to the world war there was experienced what might be termed real competition among railroads, in the running of excursions, transportation of freight and express and in bidding for a steady flow of business from various sources.

Taking over of the carrier lines by the government stopped all that. When the rails were returned to the owners, there was little or no disposition for a return to the old order of things. However, with a gradual resumption of the tendency to "normal," there are evidences that pre-war conditions in the matter of competition will soon again be experienced.

Announcement of special excursion rates from Lima to other points, by any steam road or interurban line, is unusual. It is the exception rather than the rule. Hence, more than ordinary interest attaches to a cut in rates to induce passenger carrying traffic.

The general public sees in this situation the best sort of evidence of resumption of what President Harding is pleased to term "normalcy."

CHANGING TIME

ONE of the interurban lines passing thru Lima will go on Eastern time within a few days, altho this city will remain on the old Central time basis. It is easy to see how much confusion will result from this source. It will be a repetition of conditions two years ago when Lima went on daylight saving and railroads did not change from Central time.

It is regrettable that time has to be mixed up every year in one way or another. There should be a uniform plan the state over, especially where the travelling public is concerned.

I to my cozen's in Spencerville, a quiet town, where even the birds are not permitted by law to chirp on Sunday. Albeit a Methodist basso was calling old ayemen departed from their graves as I motored past his synagogue. Staid an hour, so peaceful, gentle, subdued, that you could hear the trees leave. Next Sunday you must push your machine to the corporate limits, before starting the engine.

Drowned in the moonshine of McBeth's Park, where a Dumbdora of aeons ago swore she would be a sister to me. And I with five blooded ones who could give her the entire invoice of the Lima Paint Co. and make her resemble an Ohio

Electric are in the center of our Boulevard system. Which reminds me, there is a cellar-smeller in our set whose parole is about callable. He even snatches up the ladies' drenchers, claiming they will burn holes in the brass-lined ash trays. Then smokes 'em himself. When his wife motors to St. Marys to buy the baby's new undies direct from the mill, he goes goofy over the first 'tomato he meets. And proposes a banquet in a hot-off armchair beaver. Some keen Barlow will be hanging alienated-affections crepe on him one of these days, and make a streamer for page one.

Home to read the Smith graduate's 'Dancers in The Dark,' a rather startling expose of flappers and lounge lizards as she finds them in this era of peace and profit. Yet I do feel it not amiss as a Father Timer to learn the ways of the world of the new generation. It is not in such cataclysmic contrast to petting parties of the past. But a horse would go home, while an auto goes in the ditch.

Must walk up and see my old golf pal, Billy Duffield, and talk to him about a charge account at the Metropolitan bank. So to bed.

GUARD THE TEMPLE!

The forest is God's temple, hushed and dim,
Whose shadowy aisles are soothing and serene,
Where every leafy branch and spreading limb
Upholds its canopy of living green,
A temple it took centuries to build
In splendid beauty and in stately calm,
Where all the world's harsh dissonance is stilled
And all the air is odorous with balm.

The forest is man's refuge from the strife,
The dust and heat and clamor of the town,
For in the woods he breathes new zest of life,
New courage that no odds can batter down,
Here in this columned vastness, leafy-floored,
A choir of birds is ever heard to sing;
Here are the waters of the rivers stored
That otherwise would flood the land in spring.

Let us preserve the forest, fair and cool,
From greed that sets no bounds to its desires;
Let us preserve it from the careless fool,
Who starts a holocaust of forest fires;
Let us preserve this place of rest and peace,
Keep it inviolate while still we can,
A haven where the spirit finds release,
A temple to God—a heritage to Man!

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

PERIL IN FEVERS

(BY R. H. BISHOP)

Fever may be the result of a number of things, but whatever these causes are, you should always consider a fever as the signal that something is vitally wrong.

This does not mean that one need become panic-stricken if a case of fever has to be cared for. This would not be wise, and yet the seriousness of fever must not be overlooked.

The skin of a person with fever will probably feel hot to the hands, the eyes will be very bright or perhaps very dull, and the patient may be delirious or excited or in a stupor. It is always a good plan to take the temperature in every case of illness. This is done with the clinical thermometer.

To take the temperature shake down the mercury to 95 degrees Fahrenheit or below. Wash the thermometer in clean cold water, shaking off the clinging drop.

Put it in the patient's mouth under the tongue, with the lips closed tightly. Leave it for five minutes at which it can be removed and read.

Wash the thermometer in clean, cold water before putting it back in its case. Remember that in fever the temperature is always higher at night, perhaps 2 or 3 degrees, so that a high morning temperature is more serious than the same temperature at night.

The normal temperature is 98.40 degrees Fahrenheit. From that point to 100 degrees at night is slight fever; from 100 degrees Fahrenheit to 102 degrees Fahrenheit is moderate fever, and from 102 degrees to 106 degrees high fever. Still higher temperatures are very uncommon.

Children are much more liable to fever from slight causes than are their elders. In any case of fever the place for the sick person is in bed, if possible in a quiet, dark room.

The patient should be lightly covered. He may be bathed in cool water. The food should be very simple; milk or a little milk toast will be all that is required. Plenty of cool water is necessary. Call the doctor immediately.

Don't Worry About Cooks

We do the cooking for you in our two-million dollar kitchen, the cleanest, finest food factory in the world, visited every year by one hundred thousand pilgrims from all lands.

Shredded Wheat

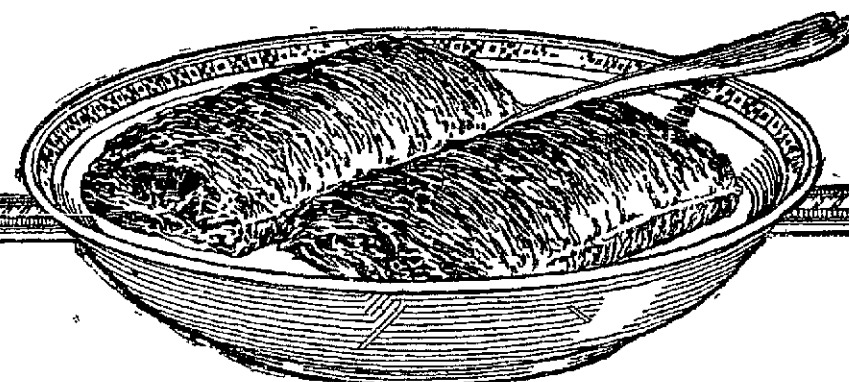

is the whole wheat cooked in steam, drawn into filmy, porous shreds and baked in coal ovens—a process that retains all the body-building elements in the whole wheat grain and makes them digestible in the human stomach. Two Biscuits make a good, nourishing meal. Saves fuel, saves strength, saves time.

For a warm, nourishing meal heat two Biscuits in the oven to restore their crispness; pour hot milk over them, adding a little cream and a dash of salt. Delicious with sliced bananas, prunes, raisins or canned fruits.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat cracker—a real whole wheat toast—and is eaten with butter or soft cheese.

Send two-cent stamp for copy of our new book, "The Happy Way to Health," which tells how to keep healthy and strong and how to prevent many ailments and diseases by eating the right kind of food.

"The Bank that Serves"

IF WINTER COMES

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON

"He had—once. He showed me the letter. Well, you know, old man, every fox knows what foxes smell like; and I smelt a dear brother's smell in that letter. Asking him to make a home possible for her to return to so they might resume their life together."
"I handed it back," I said, "H'm, again. I said, 'H'm, you remember, old man, there was that remark—that remark that perhaps the girl that remark that claim on you. Remember that, don't you?'"
"By Jove, I thought for a minute he was going to flare up and let me have it. But he laughed and said, 'Oh, good Lord, man, that's utterly ridiculous. Man alive, with all my faults, my wife knows me.'"

CHAPTER III
I
On a day a month later—in May—Haggood said:
"Now, I'll tell you. Old Sabre—by Jove, it's frightful. He's crashed. Look here, it's in two parts, this sudden development. Two parts—morning and afternoon yesterday and a bit today. And of all extraordinary places to happen at—Brighton."
"Yes, Brighton. I was down there for a Saturday to Monday with my musts. Monday morning we were sunning on the pier, she and I."
"Well, all of a sudden she began, 'Oh what a frightfully interesting face that man's got!'"
"I looked across. Old Sabre! I went over to him. His face was like a shout on a sunny morn—ing. Yes, he was pleased. I like to think how jolly pleased the old chap was.

"I got old Sabre on to a secluded bench and started in on him. What on earth was he doing down at Brighton, and how were things?"
"He said 'Things . . . ? Things are happening with me, Haggood. Not to me—with me. I had to get away from them for a bit. I'm going back tomorrow. Edie was right with her baby. She was right. I should go—glad for me, I mean. Top of her own misery, Haggood, she's miserable at what she says she's let me in for. She's always crying about it. She's torn between knowing my house is the only place where she can have her baby, between that and seeing what her coming into the place has caused. She spends her time trying to do any little thing she can to make me comfortable. It's pathetic, you know. Jumped at this sudden idea of mine of getting away for a couple of days. Fussed over me packing up and all that, you know. Look, just to show you how she hunts about for anything to do for me—said my old straw hat was much too shabby for Brighton and would I get her some stuff, oxalic acid, and let her clean it up for me. As a matter of fact she made such a shocking mess of the hat that I hardly liked to wear it. Couldn't hurt her feelings, tho. Chucked it into the sea when I got here and bought this one. Make a funny story for her when I get back about how it blew off. That's the sort of life we lead together, Haggood. Give you another example. Just when I had brought her the stuff for my hat. Met me with, 'Had I lost anything?' Said I was to guess. Guessed at last that it must be my cigarette case. It was. She'd found it lying about and took me to show where she'd put it for safety—in the back of the clock in my room. Said I was always to look there for any little valuable I might miss, and wanted me to know how she liked to be careful of my things like that. Fussed over me, d'you see?"
"That's the sort of life we lead together, Haggood—together; but the life I'm caught up in, the things that are happening with me, that I felt I had to get away from for a bit—astounding, Haggood, astounding, amazing."

"Haggood, if I kept forty women in different parts of London and made no secret of it, nothing would be said. People would know I was rather a shameless lot, my little ways would be an open secret, but nothing would be said. I should be revered everywhere. But I'm thought to have brought one woman into my house and I'm banned. I'm unspeakable."
"Do you see, Haggood? Do you see? The conventions are all right, moral, sound, excellent, admirable, but to save their own face there's a blind side to them, a shut-eye side. Keep that side of them and you're all right. They'll let you alone. They'll pretend they don't see you. But come out and stand in front of them and they'll devour you. They'll smash and grind and devour you, Haggood. They're devouring me."

"That's where they've got me in their jaws, Haggood, and where they've got Edie in their jaws is just precisely again on a blind, shut-eye side. . . . They're rightly based, they're absolutely just, you can't gainsay them, but to save their face, again, they're indomitably blind and deaf to the hideous cruelties in their application. They mean well. They cause the most frightful suffering, the most frightful tragedies, but they won't look at them, they won't think of them, they won't speak of them; they mean well."
"Old Sabre put his head in his hands. He might have been praying. With that he went back to all that stuff I told you he told me when I was down with him last month. He said, his face all pink under his skin, he said, 'Haggood, I've got the secret. I've got the key to the riddle that's been puzzling me all my life. Light, more light. Here it is: God is—love. Not this, that, nor the other that the intelligence revolts at, and puts aside, and goes away, and goes on hungering, hungering and unsatisfied; nothing like that; but just this: plain for a child, clear as daylight for grown intelligence: God is—love. Listen to this, Haggood: 'He that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God and God in him; for God is love.' Ecstasy, Haggood, ecstasy!"

"When I saw him again was about three o'clock, and I walked right into the middle of the development that has pretty well let the roof down on him.
"He was in the lobby. No one else there. Only a man who'd just been speaking to him and who left him, and went out as I came in.
"Sabre had two papers in his hands. He was staring at them and you'd ha' thought from his face he was staring at a ghost. They were divorce papers. The citation and petition papers that have to be served personally. Divorce papers. His wife had instituted divorce proceedings against him. Naming the girl, Edie."

"My, God, The Word Makes Me Sick!"

Was his wife mad? Was she crazy? He to be guilty of a thing like that? He capable of a beastly thing like that? A vile, hideous, sordid intrigue with a girl employed in his own house? Edie! His wife to believe that? An unspeakable, beastly thing like that? He tried to show me with his finger the words on the paper. His finger shaking all over the thing. Haggood, Haggood, do you see this vile, obscene word here? I guilty of that? My wife, Mabel, think me capable of that? Adulter—er! Adulter! My God, my God, adulter! The word makes me sick. The very word is like poison in my mouth. And I am to swallow it. It is to be me, my name, my title, my brand. Adulter! Adulter!"
"I tell you, old man . . . I tell you . . ."

"I managed to get him talking about the practical side of it. That is I managed to make him listen while I talked.
"Next morning—that's this morning, you understand—he was a little more normal, able to realize things a bit, I mean: in a panic fever to be off and state at the Registrar's that he was going to defend the action, but normal enough for me to see it was all right for him to go straight on home immediately after and tell the girl what she had to do and all that. I told him, by the way, that it would pretty well have to come out now, ultimately, who the child's father was: the girl would practically have to give that up in the end to clear him. You know, I told him that in the cab going along down. He ground his teeth over it. It was horrible to hear him. He said he'd kill the chap if he could ever discover him; ground his teeth and said he'd kill him, now—after this.

"Well, he got thru his business about twelve—Then a thing happened. Can't think now what it meant. We were waiting for a cab near the Law Courts. A cab was just pulling in when a man came up and touched Sabre and said, 'Mr. Sabre?' Sabre said, 'Yes' and the chap said very civilly, 'Might I speak to you a minute, sir?'"
"Suddenly someone shoved past me and there was old Sabre getting into the cab with this chap who had come up to him. I said, 'Hullo! Hullo, are you off?'"
"He turned round on me a face gray as ashes, absolutely dead gray. I'd never seen such a color in a man's face. He said, 'Yes, I'm off, and sort of fell over his stick into the cab. The man, who was already in, righted him out to the seat and said, 'Paddington' to the driver who was at the door, shutting it. I said, thru the window, 'Sabre! Old man, are you ill?'"

"He put his head towards me and said in the most extraordinary voice, speaking between his clenched teeth as tho he was keeping himself from falling out, he said, 'If you love me, Haggood, get right away out of it, from me and let me alone. This man happens to live at Tidborough. I know him. We're going down together.'"

"I said, 'Sabre—'"
"He clenched his teeth so they were all bare with his lips contracting. He said, 'Let me alone. Let me alone. Let me alone.'"

"And they pushed off."

"I tell you what I'm going to do. I'm going down there tomorrow. I'm frightened about him."

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

THE SAD PRINCESS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Up started Nancy and Nick over the Chocolate Mountain.

It all happened just as the red leather pen had written. When Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, the Weather-man, sent hard rain, the Eider-down Mountain began to flatten at once. Soon it was, indeed, as Mr. Sprinkle-Blow had said it would be, as flat as a banana fritter. Nancy and Nick pulled on their goloshes, which they had found beside a bush when they went back, and walked across the mountain as easily as you can cross the street.
But the minute they had reached the other side, the rain stopped, the sun came out, and those feathers puffed up until the mountain with its blue plush cover, was as high as ever.

"That's four of them," said Nick with a sigh of relief. "Only three more mountains to cross. Let's see what's the next one?"
"You can tell to look at it what it's made of. It's the Chocolate Mountain!"
"M'm! Yum!" laughed Nick. "I wonder if we're allowed to eat any?"
"I think we should be glad if we can get over it," said Nancy. "If we don't hurry up and stop having troubles, Princess Therna will think we're not coming and she'll marry somebody else."
"I wonder what the message is the record has to tell," remarked Nick, looking down at it curiously. "I wonder whether it's King Indig of the Diddyevers or King Verdo of the Koisknots that Longhead says is the handsomer and whom she must marry."
Off in her Palace of Mirrors the Princess Therna was regarding them sadly. It didn't matter to her what the record said. She hated blue hair and she loathed green beads, and these two kings had both.

Up started Nancy and Nick over the Chocolate Mountain. The thousand years were nearly up.

MISS ARMSTRONG BECOMES BRIDE OF SEBRING MAN

ESTER morning at 9 o'clock the marriage of Miss Florence Marie Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Armstrong, of Rich-av., and Ronald O'Avard Robertson, son of S. S. Robertson, of Sebring, Ohio, was solemnized at the Market Street Presbyterian parsonage, the Rev. Samuel Heucker officiating.

The wedding was very quietly celebrated, with only the members of the immediate families in attendance.

The bride was attractively attired in a pinkish krene knit cape dress. She wore a modish hat to match and her corsage was of rosebuds and sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The table was attractively appointed, jellies and ferns being used in the adornment. Places were arranged for Mr. Robertson and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Don Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Armstrong, Mrs. L. W. Olds, of Ann Arbor, sister of the bride and S. S. Robertson, of Sebring.

Mr. Robertson and his bride left in the afternoon on a wedding trip to Cleveland and other eastern points. The bride's going away outfit was a midnight blue tulle suit and a small grey hat. After a week's trip Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will be at home at 916 Maryland av., Canton.

The bride graduated from the Lima Central high school and later took a short course in music at the School of Music, Ann Arbor.

Mr. Robertson was graduated from the Law school at the University of Michigan and also graduated from Mt. Union College. He is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and is a promising young attorney.

Miss Laurine Estela North, daughter of Mrs. Theresa North, of L. Market-st., and Dean Wagner Griffin, only son of Mr. Mae E. Griffin, of E. North-st., were quietly united in marriage at a pretty ceremony at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. J. M. Mills, of W. Market-st., Easter morning at 10 o'clock.

Only the immediate families and a few guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. David Mall attended the couple.

The bride was attired in a frock of blue crepe de chine. She wore a hat with trimmings of grey and her corsage was of white roses and valley lilies.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin will make their home with the bride's mother at 929 E. Market-st., for the present. Mr. Griffin is an employee at the Fisk Tire company.

Honoring her son and his wife, Mrs. Griffin is entertaining with a dinner at her home, Monday evening.

"Research Day" was observed at the meeting of the Lincian club, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. O. Hotchkiss, of Rich-av. The assistant hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Fred Fisher and Mrs. A. C. Stuart.

Mrs. Fred Bisantz presented an interesting paper on "Radio and Its Uses" while Mrs. Fred Fisher had a very well prepared paper on the subject, "Ex-Rats." Mrs. C. P. Oliver and Mrs. J. E. Dexter gave a very artistic piano duet, "Invitation to the Dance" by Von Weber.

At the conclusion of the enjoyable program the hostesses served a dainty repast. The guests other than the club members were Mrs. Clyde Troutman, Mrs. Warren L. Steeves, Mrs. T. Bussett, Mrs. Raymond M. Munn, Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. A. E. Gale.

The next meeting of the club will be held May 1st, with Mrs. W. N. Gilles, of W. Spring-st. The program will pertain to Nature Day.

Miss Leah Grace Simmons and Harlan C. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, of N. Metcalf-st., were quietly united in marriage Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Trinity M. E. parsonage. The Rev. Walter D. Cole was the officiating clergyman and the only attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Ruby and F. A. Garber.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher are making their home with the latter's parents at 503 N. Metcalf-st. for the present time. Mr. Fisher is manager of the Fisher Garage.

Mrs. L. W. Olds and daughter, Jean, of Ann Arbor, are the guests of Mrs. Olds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Armstrong, of Rich-av., for several weeks. Mrs. Olds came to this city for the wedding of her sister, Miss Florence and Roland O. Robertson, of Canton.

Mrs. P. A. Kershaw, of N. Collett-st., will entertain the Queen Quality Dinner club at her home, Wednesday.

Miss Emma Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Val Hill, of E. Eureka-st., and Amos Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Long, will be united in marriage Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the First Reformed church, the Rev. T. W. Hoerneman officiating.

Miss Annette Roby and Miss Margaret McHaffey will return Tuesday to Cincinnati to resume their studies at the Conservatory of Music after spending the spring vacation with their parents.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I am a young working girl and as my home is quite a distance from the city, I usually take my lunch down town. I have been eating in a restaurant one of the men who is employed in the same office in which I work, I've been eating at the same place. He does not eat at the same time with me, but for the last few days he has been eating for my lunch. When the waiter comes to give him his check he also takes my check. This is rather embarrassing for me as I do not know what to do or say. Is it proper for him to do this?

DEARER: This man must be especially eager to dispose of his money. You are old enough to realize that he has not been doing the right thing in paying for your lunch, when he has not invited you to lunch with him. It is possible that he is not informed on this point of etiquette and that he thinks he is being very kind and considerate to you.

The only thing you can do now is to see that it never happens again. Either go to lunch at a different time, or if it is convenient, take your lunch at a different restaurant.

Dear Miss Smart: (1) I would like your advice. I have been married a number of years. My wife is a very nice person and I like her very well. My engagement ring has quite a large diamond setting which my husband inherited. We are in moderate circumstances and I don't like to wear it. It would be a pity to let this ring go and get a better wedding ring. My husband is willing but what would other people think about it? We have no children. (2) My husband has been very kind and considerate to me. He should be passed first when should the bride be served? Also the coffee?

DEARER: (1) I would not advise you to dispose of your engagement ring, unless your financial conditions are not favorable and you are desperately in need of money. Your should value the ring because it is your engagement ring. The wisest plan would be for you to take your wedding ring to a jeweler and have it made over in the newer style. Many people do this and the work is very satisfactory.

(2) When a meal is served in the manner which you mention, it really makes very little difference what is passed first. The meat and potatoes are usually first, but there is really no set rule. The bread should be passed as soon as the guests are served and the host or hostess should see that his or her guests are not neglected. Some folks prefer the coffee during the meal proper, while other would rather it would be served immediately following the dessert. It is always well to ask.

THE USE OF MINT

With spring lamb again in market mint comes into favor.

New potatoes and peas are more easily digested if cooked with mint.

Cold drinks are improved by a few sprigs of fresh mint or mint can be canned in such a way that it may be used when mint is not in season.

MINT SAUCE FOR LAMB

Eight tablespoons minced leaves, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 cup vinegar, 1-4 cup water. Wash mint carefully, trim several waters. Pick leaves from stalks and dry between towels. Mince. Put mint in a bowl that can be tightly covered.

Sprinkle sugar over mint and let stand an hour. Add salt to vinegar and bring to the boiling point. Pour over mint, cover tightly and let stand two hours before serving.

MINT JELLY

One tablespoon granulated gelatin, 1-4 cup cold water, 1 cup vinegar, 1-4 cup sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 3-4 cup boiling water, 1 cup mint leaves.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Mince mint leaves, cover with sugar and crush with wooden potato masher. Pour over boiling water and simmer over a slow fire for 20 minutes. Strain thru cheesecloth. Add enough boiling water to make three-quarters cup. Add vinegar and bring to the boiling point.

Pour over softened gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Turn into a mold dipped in cold water and let stand three or four hours till set and chilled. Serve with roast lamb in place of mint leaves.

Mint jelly is often served with roast lamb at a formal dinner.

MINT ICE

One and one-half cups mint leaves, 1 cup sugar, 2 lemons, 2 cups water, 1 egg white, 1-8 teaspoon salt.

Mince mint leaves. Sprinkle with sugar, pound with a wooden potato masher and let stand one hour. Pour over water and bring to the boiling point.

Let simmer 20 minutes. Strain thru a cheesecloth. Add salt and lemon juice. Beat the egg white till stiff and dry.

Add mint mixture and turn into mold. Pack in ice and salt, using three parts of ice to one of salt. Pour over two cups of strong brine and let stand four hours. Serve in sherbet glasses.

MINT SALT

Two cups mint leaves, 1-3-4 cups vinegar, 1-3-4 cups water, 2 cups sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Mince leaves, cover with sugar and pound with a wooden potato masher. Add salt, vinegar and water and bring to the boiling point. Let simmer about 15 minutes, until the mixture is syrupy. Pour into a sterilized jar while boiling.

Fill the jar level full and seal at once. This syrup is added to a pint ginger ale and the juice of one lemon to make a delicious drink. It can also be used to make mint jelly or ice.

AND OTHER ATTRACTIONS

RADIOPHONE USED TO DIRECT MOTION PICTURES

(By ESTHER WAGNER)

THE film industry is the first to put the radiophone to practical use on an extensive scale, except, of course, agencies for the dissemination of news and reports.

The radiophone promises to revolutionize certain phases of movie making, creating greater efficiency thru saving of time and labor.

Marshall Neilan has installed a radio for the purpose of directing big scenes. Heretofore a director used a field telephone, transmitting orders to an assistant director and the latter repeating them to the players.

By means of the amplifier Neilan will be able to talk to the members of the cast direct, the receiving set being set up at any point on location without the straining of wires.

If the radiophone is generally adapted for this purpose it may mean the loss of jobs to many assistant directors.

Neilan also urges the radiophone for diversion for players between scenes. The phonograph of a studio has been generally used to relieve the tedium of waits between scenes, players often being at the studio from nine in the morning until midnight.

Allen Holubar used wireless extensively in the filming of "Hurricane's Gal." Action of two hydroplanes and a destroyer which figure in the plot were coordinated by means of wireless.

They meet in a distant port in Turkey or somewhere, where the boy is on land-leave and the girl is stopping on her trip around the world.

So in the course of time the goggle-eyed gob is allowed to save the heroine from the clutches of a sinister and much despised Maharaja, who has chased him off the premises because of his lack of worldly goods. So it was up to Joe Bascom to get busy.

He landed among a group of racing touts and Lady Luck was with him—for a long, long time. Then—just as he was to make a cleanup and go back home armed with a few thousand in cold cash, Lady Luck turned her back on him and he landed in prison, charged with a theft he did not commit.

When he came out he had acquired the eternal friendship of a pals, Gilly and Jugs—tough birds but true. And the three of them went back. Here comes the fun.

"Abraham Lincoln"—Faurot

THE world figure, Lincoln, now almost legendary, in spite of the fast thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic which acted on his orders. The man in the street, the child in school, sense this hero as belonging to a distant generation.

Thus, when William Harris, Jr., produced John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln," which comes to the Faurot Opera House, Thursday evening, April 20th, it came rather as a shock to realize that we were yet so near to the days he had lived in.

Todd Lincoln, his son, at 83, is living a quiet life in Washington. There are the scores of people who knew Lincoln intimately and casually. And from the theater standpoint the most interesting fact discovered is that there are still alive two members of Laura Keane's company, which was playing at Ford's theater, Washington, the night of the great tragedy.

CORES

They ran a race around the block to see who was the fastest. Before the end they had a scrap and found who was the strongest.

YESTERDAY'S HERO—Dutch Reuther, Brooklyn southpaw, held the Phils safely, hit a triple and three singles in four times up, scored two runs and accepted two chances. Brooklyn won 10 to 2.

Art Nehf let the Braves down with six hits, the Giants winning 5 to 2. George Kelley got his first homer of the season.

Washington made six errors because Gleason and the Athletics won 5 to 1.

Harris fanned eight of the Senators.

Two runs scored in the eighth inning, gave the Cards a 3 to 2 win over the Cubs.

Two tennis fans went out to play their first set of the season. They played, but not for very long before their hands were frozen.

McClellan's double and singles by Collins and Strunk gave the White Sox a 7 to 6 win over the Tigers for their first victory of the season.

Babe Ruth got a home run, but it didn't count. The Bam did his stuff while the Yanks were beating the Baltimore Orioles 9 to 1 in an exhibition game.

FLYING FLIVVER DEVELOPED
DAYTON.—The flying "flivver" is on its way.
Bud Snyder, Dayton, has designed a tiny airplane which he claims can be built to sell for $1,500. One plane has already been built and is now in practical use.

The tiny plane has a wing spread of 21 feet and weighs only 314 pounds. A regulation motorcycle engine is the motive power. One can take it down, load it into a car, and take it up and be off on the heavenly regions, and all in the course of an hour, Snyder claims.

A speed of 62 miles an hour is possible, he says. The ship maintains its cruising speed, with the engine running at the rate it would require to develop 45 miles an hour in a motorcycle. And it uses the same amount of fuel.

PREPARE FOR DEMPSEY
LONDON.—The Crystal Palace arena which seats 100,000 persons has been engaged by a syndicate which hopes to stage two bouts during George Dempsey's stay in England.

George McDonald, promoter, is proposing that Dempsey undertake a fight with Joe Beckett, British heavyweight champion, in six rounds, and Jack Blumfield in four.

Seat prices will range from six shillings to five pounds sterling.

TWIRL NO-HIT GAME
NEWARK, N. J.—Beane Barnhart and Lute Barnhart, sharing the work on the mound, let Jersey City down without a hit or run, Newark winning 3 to 0. Barnhart pitched the innings and Barnes four.

Lightweights Meet
COLUMBUS.—Eddie Shannon, Columbus lightweight, will exchange punches with Benny Becker of New Orleans here tonight in 12 rounds. Becker is a favorite to win over the capital city mitsman.

IT'S DIFFERENT!
PARIS.—After enthusiasm aroused by Johnny Kilbane's fight Eugene Crichton for the world's featherweight championship, Paris nearly passed out when the champion started talking about 700,000 francs, a sum double the receipts of the biggest French bouts.

INDIANS, CARDS BANK ON QUICK GET-AWAY

M'GRAW BELIEVES IN EVEN PACE

BY HENRY L. FARRELL.
NEW YORK—Cleveland's Indians and the St. Louis Cardinals are away to a flying start in the major league races.

What result a quick get-away in April will accomplish in October causes smart baseball men to differ.

John McGraw, a rather successful person in getting results out of a ball club, sees no wisdom in a sprinter's crouch and a flying start from the tape for an ordinary start and an even pace.

RICKY HAS SPEED FAITH
After his experiences last year, when the Cards lost 15 out of the first 20 games, Branch Rickey believes in speed from the first and he has sent his Cards away with the whip.

So has Tris Speaker. The rush of the Cardinals and the Indians is the talk of the young baseball sons.

This Speaker must be chuckling. It was expected that the Cards would get away with a dash, but Cleveland with "only one pitcher" was expected to be jostled on every turn.

The wiseacre pointed out that the Indians did not have a pitcher down south who could go the distance. Some believe the champions of 1920 haven't a hurler who can't go the distance.

RUTHLESS YANKS HELPFUL
The New York Yanks can't be blamed if they get on their knees and pray for mercy until May 20, when Ruth and Meusel return to the game.

It is not generally agreed that even the presence of those two celebrities will work miracles.

If the Indians succeed in getting only three winners out of that nice-looking hurling staff, the Yanks are in for the bumps and the Browns will wake up out of a dream.

DOUBLE BILL IS BOOKED
A double bill with a minor league club is a dish the management of the Lima Independents will serve to local fans on the 1923 bill of fare.

No less an aggregation than "Buzz" Wetzel's renowned London, Canada, club of the Ontario league will visit here April 29 and 30.

Wetzel's crew has almost finished spring training at Delaware, and will do a little barnstorming before taking up the regular duties of trying to cop a pennant.

Attractive financial guarantees were necessary to book the team for the double-header. Fans undoubtedly will pack Murphy-st park to capacity on both days.

The local club will have considerable money tied up in the two-day attraction, and must bear all expenses of the athletes from deer old Linnon if the net elements uncork.

Coming on the heels of the engagement with the Wiedemanns April 23, the dish is one that will be greatly appreciated by the bugs.

FIRST 'BIG TEN'
COLUMBUS.—Tuned up by a series of practice games with independent teams and a short southern trip, the Ohio State university baseball squad faces its first Western Conference game of the season next Saturday, when Purdue is scheduled to come to Columbus.

LIMA BOY ON ELEVEN THAT PRODUCED MOST COACHES
COLUMBUS.—Nine stars of the 1917 Ohio State university football team are now giving their attention to coaching, the most players on any team who have transferred their efforts to teaching sports.

Wesley "Shifty" Bolen, formerly of Lima, and an all-Ohio end, has been developing teams at Ohio Northern university. Fritz Holtkamp, all-western conference center, has had two seasons at Mississippi A. & M. Clarence MacDonald, football and basketball captain in 1918, is an assistant on the present Buckeye staff.

Howard Courtney, conference tackle, handled Waite High in Toledo until last year. "Jumbo" Karch, all-conference guard, is at Columbus East High.

Dwight Peabody, end, had charge of Elyria High. "Tiny" Seddon, guard, in turning out opposition for Coach Yerges at the Uni of Texas. "Bob" Weiche, guard in 1917 and 1920, is assisting Coach George Little, himself a former member of the Ohio State coaching staff, at Miami university.

BRIGHTEST STARS NOT COACHING
Strangely enough, the two Ohio stars of 1917 are subsequent seasons whose services have been most sought are not coaching. They are "Chic" Harley and "Pete" Stinchcomb, all-American halfbacks.

Other gridder who have won their spurs since the Buckeyes capped their first "Big Ten" title and are now coaching, include: Spiers, tackle in 1919-20-21, at Barborton high school; Matheny, fullback in 1918 at Springfield high school; Harold Wiper, 1918 quarterback, at Fostoria high school; Johnson, utility end, at Williston; "Herb" Henderson, halfback in 1920, at Evansville, Ind.

LEONARD REFUSES RICE OFFER
NEW YORK.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, turned down an offer of 10,000 pounds to meet Ernie Rice, the British champion, in London in June or early July. Leonard's "Fourth of July" engagement at Michigan City, Ind., prevented his accepting.

TY COBB JR. WILL ENTER PRINCETON

THE name of Cobb in the near future will probably help to uphold the traditions of Princeton.
Ty Cobb Jr., son of the great and only Tyrus, plans to enter Princeton. He aspires to shine as a pitcher.

This will be good news to the Tiger athletic authorities as a Cobb in baseball means something. His ambition to so shine is not surprising, since Ty Sr. always worked out at pitching in practice and says he should have tried twirling instead of outfielding.

Blood will tell, and it looks as if the Blue and the Crimson of Harvard will have something to worry about when Cobb is announced as the Princeton pitcher.

LONG TIME COMING, BUT NOW HE STARS

BOBBIE SONE

BO is the best third baseman in the American League? A year ago, in considering that question, Bobby Jones of the Detroit club wouldn't have been in the running.

Today, Bobby Jones stands out as one of the most likely candidates for the honor.

Always the possessor of great natural ability, it took Jones four or five years to find himself.

When Jones came to the Detroit club, Hughie Jennings was manager. Jennings, while he knew Jones had great ability, was of the opinion that he lacked a certain something, and never gave him a real chance.

Jones would break into the line-up for a week or so and if he failed to do everything in tip-top fashion he would be ranked out and given a seat on the bench for a couple of weeks.

Then there is the case of Frank Baker. It is giving Miller Huggins time is fielding on a 10-cent piece.

Baker's arm is as good as ever and he still takes a mean cut at the ball, but he has slowed up so much that he is covering so little ground around third that Huggins is worried.

Unless Baker shows an improvement in his fielding it is said that Ward will be sent to third and McNally shifted to second.

NET STAR DESPITE WAR INJURY

BY BOB DORMAN
NEW YORK—Probably the most interesting figure in the ranks of the challenge Davis Cup players is that of Nicholas Mitsu, one of the stars of the Roumanian team.

Mitsu has risen to Davis Cup form in only six years of play, and that despite the handicap of a partially disabled left arm, a casualty of war service, which materially affects his balance when playing.

He is also handicapped by lack of sufficient opportunity for play, due to his duties at the Roumanian legation in London, where he is stationed.

DEFEATS FRENCH CHAMP
Yet his natural ability is so great that in the recent match at St. Cloud he defeated on successive days, in straight sets, Gobert, former champion of France, and Alonso, the former champion of Spain.

Mitsu's favorite game is the cut and chop, at which he is a master. He holds the racket like a poker, several inches from the end, and chops the ball with little or no follow thru.

His back-hand stroke is practically a slice, while he has a great number of underhand cuts that he uses against a hard hit ball.

Despite his disability, he stands the final round.

on what is usually considered the most dangerous position on the court—about two feet inside the service line—from where he uses his peculiar shots to great advantage.

USES UNDERHAND STROKE
In serving he uses an underhand back cut that is particularly aggravating to his opponent, as it may bounce anywhere and is very deceptive and hard to return.

Altho this is the first time that Roumania will be represented in the Davis Cup matches Mitsu has hopes that he will have the honor of meeting the American defenders in

SHORT SHAVINGS

Dr. C. A. Black was fascinated by the gestures of a woman looking at the framed posters in front of a picture show.

"When I drew nearer," he says, "I found the gestures had naught to do with art, but were motions she made putting pop corn into her mouth."

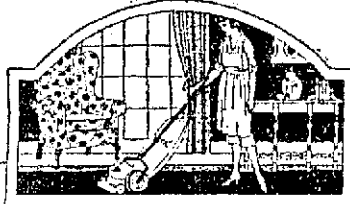

Captain O. A. Dupes of the Lima Infantry company, dictating to reduce weight, received a quart bottle in a card board carton that looked so promising he forgot his dieting.

"When I opened it," he says, "I found someone had sent me some medicine for increasing the weight."

Frank A. Bundy, Ohio Electric superintendent, was disturbed by a cat which yowled so he couldn't sleep. He looked out a window and yelled at it. That wakened a neighbor's dog. "The cat didn't yowl again," he says, "but the dog barked all night."

Sturge Sealts, wholesale grocer, tells about a friend, long a peddler, who bought a car. He notes how quickly one's view changes. The first evening he took his family out for a drive, his little daughter cried, "Oh, drive fast! Splash 'em!"

This is the time to enjoy Chicago

THE city is an Autumn carnival of dining, dancing, concert and theatre-going. The air is crisp—the sunshine mellow. The shops are gay with colorful wares.

In the smart North Shore residential district, the Hotel Somerset offers you a "delightful all-year residence or a restful apartment for a night's stay. The quiet comfort of the private home and the untold convenience of hotel service, including an excellent restaurant, combine to make this the ideal abode. On account of its accessible boulevard location, the Somerset is especially popular with motor tourists. Fall and Winter reservations now. Write for booklet.
